

Ceisteachan a' Chaisteil

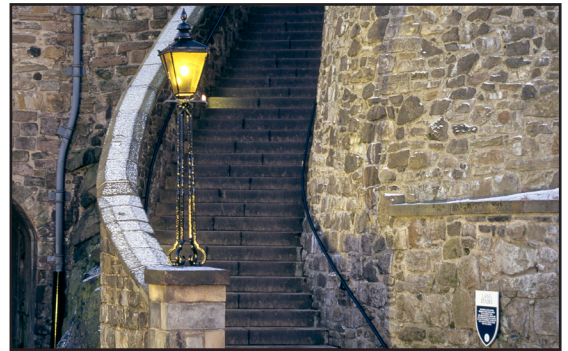

Rannsaich an caisteal feuch dè a lorgas tu! Cuidichidh an turas-fiosrachaidh spòrsail seo thu ann a bhith a' lorg sgeulachd dhaoine, àiteachan is pheataichean a' chaisteil.

- 1 Seall os cionn geata steach a' chaisteil.
Dè am beathach a chì thu?

- 2 Dirich suas An Staidhre Fhada.
Cia mheud ceum a th' ann?

- 3 An aimnich thu a dhà dhe na h-eileanan
a chì thu on chaisteal?

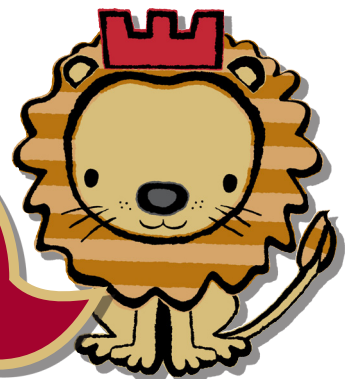

- 4 Cia mheud uinneag a th' ann
an Caibeal Naomh Mairead?

- 5 Dè ainm a' ghunna mhòir
ainmeil seo?

Is mise Ruairidh,
prìomh-leòmhann
Chaisteal Dhùn Èideann.
Na bi diùid fuasgladh
iarraidh air luchd-obrach
cuideachail na làraich!

6 Tha cladh àraid sa chaisteal. Dè seòrsa beathach a chaidh tiodhlacadh ann?

8 Dè na trì rudan rìoghail àraid a nì suas Seudan Crùn na h-Alba?

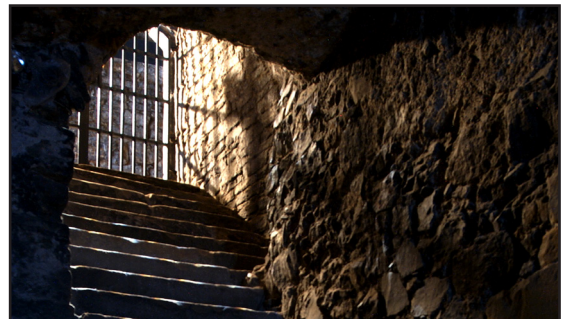

10 Cia mheud crùn cloiche a tha snaighte air na ballachan mun cuairt Ceàrnag a' Chrùin?

7 Dèan liosta de thrì seòrsaichean armachd a lorgas tu sa chaisteal.

9 Chaidh prìosanaich à iomadh dùthaich an cumail an seo. Ainmich dà dhùthaich às an tàinig iad.

11 Dè an t-ainm a tha air a' chlach ainmeil a tha anns a' chaisteal?

Gaelic was spoken across much of Scotland for more than 1,500 years.

It was the tongue of kings and commoners and has a rich tradition of poetry and song.

Although Gaelic has been in decline since the 1500s, it is still used by many people.

Gaelic gained official recognition as a national language in 2005.

You can check your answers at Visitor Information.