DUFF HOUSE

Enjoy fine art and afternoon tea at this country house art gallery

Part of Historic Environment Scotland

ONE OF THE FINEST HOUSES BUILT IN SCOTLAND

Duff House is a magnificent Georgian mansion designed by William Adam. Standing in extensive parkland, today it houses a beautiful collection of paintings and furniture on loan from the National Galleries of Scotland and the Magdalene Sharpe Erskine Trust.

THINGS TO SEE AND DO

- Enjoy the permanent collection of paintings, furniture and decorative arts including masterpieces by El Greco, Raeburn, Gainsborough and Ramsay
- Admire this fine example of neoclassical architecture which compares with some of the best known French and English houses of the period
- Tour the range of grand state rooms and private bedroom apartments, fine examples of Georgian interior design
- Get a feel for how this great house functioned
- Hear about the varied history of the house from its controversial build to its important contribution to the war effort
- Leave time to indulge in a lovely afternoon tea or a spot of lunch in our tea room, or treat yourself to a souvenir from our gift shop
- Enjoy the house's stunning parkland surroundings, children's play area and magnificent views
- Visit our website for information on all our great events and exhibitions at the house
