

LINLITHGOW LOCH EXPLORER QUIZ

Explore our loch and peel with this fun, fact-finding mission and uncover clues in the most unexpected places.

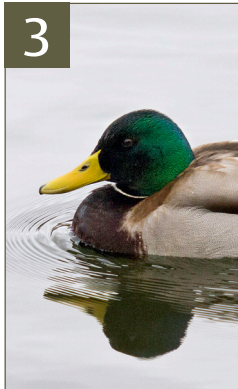

Remember to ask a steward if you need any help.

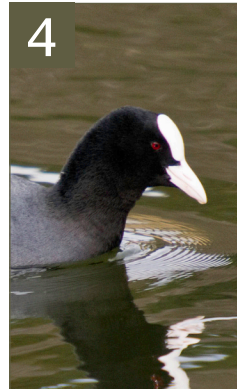

What food should you not feed the swans?

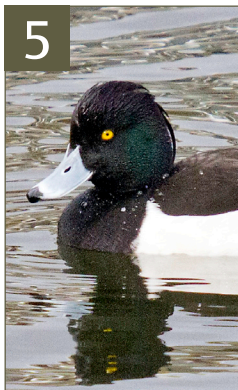

Can you find.. a moorhen, with its red flash?

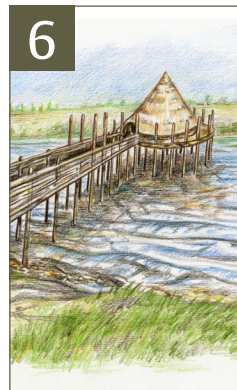

Can you find... a mallard, with a yellow beak and green head?

Can you find... a coot with its white streak and beak?

Can you find... a tufted duck, with a yellow eye and tufty feathers behind its head?

What is the name for the ancient dwellings that used to be on the loch?

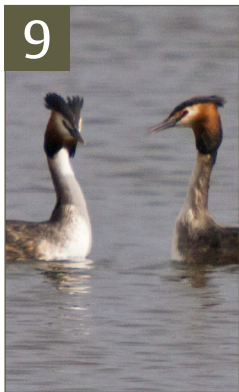

7

What does the name 'Linlithgow' mean?

8

In the last Ice Age, a chunk of ice made a hole here, which filled with water to form the loch. It was a K _____ hole.

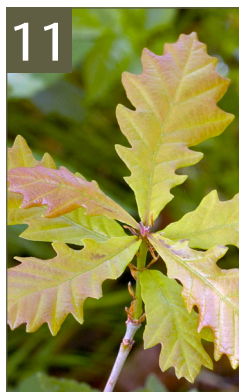

9

What kind of bird has a special courting dance that can be seen here in early spring?

10

Can you find... a rowan tree? People once thought they kept away witches!

11

Can you find... an oak tree? They can live to be 500 years old.

12

Can you find... a sycamore tree? Their seed pods fly like helicopters.

1. As you walk around the loch, look on the signs – this answer is in the bay nearest the town; 2, 3, 4 and 5. Find all these birds on the loch – you might spot them if you walk along the bay that curves behind the town; 6. Look for a panel near a small bridge; 7. Find a panel on the shore opposite the palace; 8. and 9. Look for a panel near a beautiful wooden bench; 10, 11, and 12. All of these trees can be found in the main Peel next to the palace.

Need a clue? Look in these places:

