

HISTORIC
ENVIRONMENT
SCOTLAND

ÀRAINNEACHD
EACHDRAIDHEIL
ALBA

DRAGONS, SWORDS, PORTRAITS AND LACE: THE DUNIMARLE COLLECTION AT DUFF HOUSE

Trustees of the Mrs Magdalene
Sharpe Erskine Bequest:
The Dunimarle Collection

A Study Day at
Duff House, Banff, AB45 35X

Supported by
The National Galleries of Scotland

PROGRAMME

TUESDAY 10TH OCTOBER 2017 repeated WEDNESDAY 11TH OCTOBER 2017

09.30 – 10.20 Coffee available in the Long Gallery

10.30 – 10.40 Welcome and Introduction to The Canon Harper Project
Anne Buddle

10.40 – 11.05 Meribimur - We Shall be Worthy - Swords of Sir William Erskine and his Son
Dr Allan Carswell
11.05 – 11.15 Questions and hand-over

11.15 – 11.40 Some Highlights and Curiosities of the Prints Collection
Elizabeth Miller
11.40 – 11.50 Questions and hand-over

11.50 – 12.15 Reflections around the Painted Glass
Douglas Hogg
12.15 – 12.25 Questions

12.25 – 1.40 LUNCH in the Long Gallery

1.40 – 1.45 Welcome to the afternoon sessions

1.45 – 2.10 Lace and other personal possessions
Naomi Tarrant
2.10 – 2.20 Questions and hand-over

2.20 – 2.45 The conservation of the Cardinal Fesch furniture
Peter Thuring
2.45 – 2.55 Questions

2.55 – 3.25` Tea in the Long Gallery

3.30 – 3.55 Chinaware, Porcelain and the Dunimarle Collection
Geordie Burnett Stuart
3.55 – 4.00 Questions

4.00 – 4.35 Open Forum: Please share your Comments & Suggestions
Chaired by Richard Welander, Head of Collections, Historic Environment Scotland
4.35 – 4.45 Closing remarks from the Organisers