

CHANGING CITIES

Towns and cities are made up of buildings from many different times in history. They are often mixed together and may change over time.

Explore the images to learn more about Scotland's buildings through time, the traditional materials they are made from, and the skills used to build them.

HOW TO ASSEMBLE YOUR CITYSCAPE:

1. Add windows and doors on to your buildings.
2. Add colour and texture to the walls and roofs.
3. Cut out cityscape.
4. Fold along the dashed lines.

GARDYNE'S LAND
BUILT FROM 1560

EDINBURGH NEW TOWN
BUILT FROM 1767 - 1850

TENEMENT HOUSE
BUILT LATE 19th CENTURY

QUEENSFERRY CROSSING
BUILT FROM 2011 - 2017

Look at the images and find the buildings in the city below

Do all of the buildings have doors and windows?.....

Which building is the oldest?.....

What types of materials are the buildings made from?.....

.....

Think about the materials used

What colours are the materials?.....

What textures do you think the materials feel like?.....

CHANGING CITIES

Gardyne's Land

Edinburgh New Town

Tenement House

Queensferry Crossing